

High School Associate Principal Job Description

General Information

Job Title	High School Associate Principal
Reports to	High School Principal

Overall Purpose of the Position

The High School Associate Principal is an educational leader who works collaboratively with the high school leadership team to assist the Principal in driving a unified focus on student learning. Achieving this requires both visionary leadership and exemplary management skills to support faculty development, implement a guaranteed and viable curriculum, and maintain effective communication across all school constituents. In this role, the Associate Principal fosters both the social well-being and measurable academic growth of all students. To strengthen and expand overall support for students, teachers, and parents, the Associate Principal also carries key administrative responsibilities, which include guiding student academic progress as well as supporting teaching and learning through targeted professional development and instructional coaching.

As a member of a school-wide instructional leadership team, the Associate Principal is jointly responsible for the systematic development and implementation of programs that fulfill the mission of Colegio Franklin D Roosevelt. This mission is to "empower our students to pursue their passion for learning, lead lives of integrity, and create socially responsible solutions".
